Six part presentation series on DVD

1
CPD HR PER SESSION

Presented by Syd Jenkins FTIA, Partner Moore Stephens
Filmed 11 February 2011

1 CPD Hour per presentation

Senior tax professionals often look back on their first days in practice as a time of fear, anxiety and alarm at their career choice because of the massive volume of tax law. How could anybody learn all that? Every aspiring tax professional needs to have a good grounding in the core elements of our taxation system. In tax "near enough is not good enough".

This DVD collection offers you individual presentations given by experienced tax professionals. The presentations were filmed at a full day introductory seminar designed for new participants in the tax profession. The topics introduces the Australian taxation system in an easy to follow style and explains new concepts in practical terms.

Employers of new entrants into the profession would be well advised to ensure that graduates, new employees and other staff obtain access to this DVD collection. This is an exceptional opportunity to induct or offer a refresher course in tax basics to new or existing staff. Each DVD is accompanied by papers containing comprehensive notes with worked examples to understand and apply the learnings.

The following presentations are available on DVD and can be purchased individually or as a set (Earn up to 6 CPD hours):

- Foundation of Australian Tax Law
- Taxation of Individuals
- Taxation of Entities
- GST Fundamentals
- An Introduction to FBT
- CGT Basics.

Who should buy this DVD?

This six part series provides an excellent reference source and training tool for those who are starting out in tax, overseas professionals needing a grounding in Australia tax, and those who want to revisit the fundamentals in areas they don't deal with every day.

This DVD is also beneficial to those located in regional areas and not able to attend presentations in person.
