CGT SMALL BUSINESS RELIEFS 2011-12

An essential resource for any practitioners advising on the CGT small business reliefs

Ongoing developments to the CGT small business reliefs make it increasingly important for tax practitioners to secure a reliable and current source of information to use as a reference and analysis tool. This resource is essential for any practitioners advising on the CGT small business reliefs, and includes details of all developments that have occurred which affect the reliefs.

Key features and benefits:

- supporting case studies to understand and apply the reliefs in practice
- tips and traps highlight strategies and pitfalls
- implications of relevant court and AAT decisions
- details of ATO-released information (including determinations and issues in the NTLG Losses and CGT Subcommittee meeting minutes)
- expands on various aspects of the CGT small business reliefs and their practical operation.

Annual online subscription service includes:

- 12 months of access to the 2011-12 online book, with regular updates and email alerts
- cross-references and links to legislation
- online learning module (4 CPD hours).
