ESTATE & BUSINESS SUCCESSION PLANNING 2011-12

A practical guide for accountants,
financial planners and lawyers

Written by Bernie O'Sullivan

Available as a book or online subscription

ESTATE & BUSINESS SUCCESSION PLANNING 2011-12

An indispensable guide for accountants, financial planners and lawyers, this book offers a practical format for identifying issues and implementing remedies

Building further on Australia's most practical and comprehensive estate and business succession planning guide, the fourth edition contains:

- a new chapter on family law and its impact on succession planning, including recent cases such as Ogden, Delaforce and strategies such as binding financial agreements
- a new chapter detailing the TEN MOST POPULAR ESTATE PLANNING STRATEGIES for your clients, including 'the blended family', the 'land-rich farmer' and 'the child who needs asset protection'.

Key features and benefits:

- provides a thorough overview of succession planning laws in every Australian jurisdiction
- presents case studies, tips, diagrams and strategies to ensure the best outcome, pitfalls to be aware of and troubleshooting techniques
- covers a comprehensive range of topics, including wills, superannuation, family trusts, testamentary trusts, estate litigation, international issues in estate planning, powers of attorney, and taxation issues.

Annual online subscription service includes:

- 12 months of access to the 2011-12 online book, with regular updates and email alerts
- cross-references and links to legislation
- online learning module (3.5 CPD hours).
